

Government College of Engineering, Amravati

ETAS

(Electronics and Telecommunication Association of Students)

Bose's Brainwave

On 23rd January 2025, the Electronics & Telecommunication Association of Students (ETAS) of the Government College of Engineering, Amravati, organised an inspiring event, "Bose's Brainwave," to commemorate the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose. The event was conducted under the guidance of Prof. R. R. Harne Incharge Faculty (ETAS) and HOD Dr. P. R. Deshmukh. It aimed to honour Netaji's legacy and instil his values of courage and dedication within the community. The event was inaugurated by Dr. P. R. Deshmukh and Prof. R. R. Harne, who also shared motivating words with the students, emphasizing the values of courage, dedication and leadership that Netaji embodied. Their insights set a powerful tone for the competition, encouraging participants to engage actively and give their best.

The event featured three rounds, fostering enthusiasm and active participation from students of Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering across all academic years. The first round, an individual MCQ quiz, allowed participants to answer questions based on their hobbies, inspirations, favourite subjects and sports. From the 12 participants, 8 advanced to the next stage, while 4 were eliminated. The second round, a quiz on the life and contributions of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, involved participants competing in pairs, with the opportunity to answer awarded to those who raised their hand the quickest. The final round was an elocution competition, where 3 finalists presented speeches on Netaji's life and legacy. The participants were evaluated on body language, content, delivery style and time management by the judge, Cadet Sudhanshu Wankhade.

After an engaging and competitive session, Miss. Sakshi Sinha emerged as the winner, while Miss. Aarti Bhande secured the runner-up position. The event concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where Dr. P. R. Deshmukh presented awards to the winners, marking a proud and memorable end to the celebration. The event concluded with an inspiring sense of pride and admiration for Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose. The ETAS team, with their meticulous planning and dedication, ensured the event's success, fostering a strong sense of community and patriotism among all attendees.

