

Government College of Engineering Amravati
Presents
ETAS

(Electronics and Telecommunication Association of Student's)

19/10/2022

On the occasion of birth anniversary of missile man Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam "वाचन प्रेरणा दिन" was celebrated under ETAS in of Electronics and Telecommunication Department, where in student's reviewed and recommended the books they have read. The initiative was taken considering the message given by Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam to the youth about striving to aquire knowledge.

Session started with the inspiring words of our Respected head of department Dr. P. R. Deshamukh sir. Student's from 3rd year EnTC Prachi Katariya, Saurabh Patil, Sushubh Gound and Anushka Gupta shared their views about the books Rich Dad Poor Dad, युगंधर, स्वामी and Nector in the sieve respectively. Samruddhi Dhotre from 2nd year reviewed the book Shahid. Very well anchored by Sakshi Sinha the program was coordinated by Saurabh patil, Prachi katariya, Mihir jaiswal and Sakshi sinha 3rd and 2nd ETAS convenors respectively. Faculty incharge prof. Radhika Harne ma'am helped in the successful conclusion of the programme. All the departmental faculty members were present for the successful completion of the program. All the third and second year students were present for the Program.

Below are the moments taken at the time of the session:-

prof. Radhika Harne
Faculty Incharge (ETAS)
EnTC Department
GCoE Amravati

